

GYPSY PUBLICATIONS

GYPSYPUBLICATIONS@YAHOO.COM

937-335-4824

WWW.GYPSYPUBLICATIONS.COM

CHILDREN

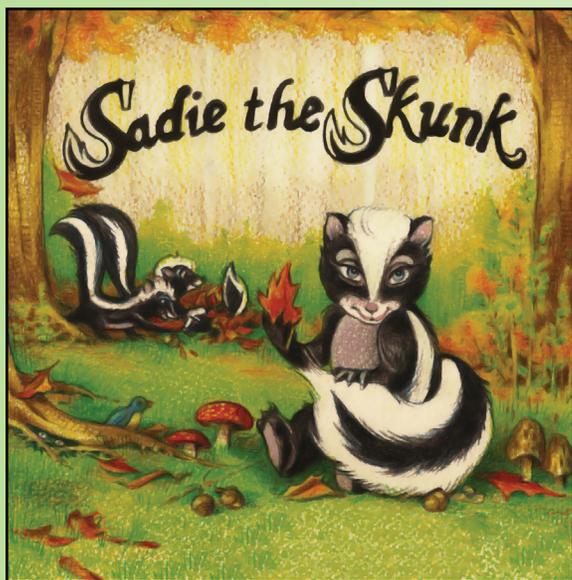

AND

YOUNG ADULT

CATALOG

Sadie the Skunk - $8.95

Author: Meaghan Fisher.

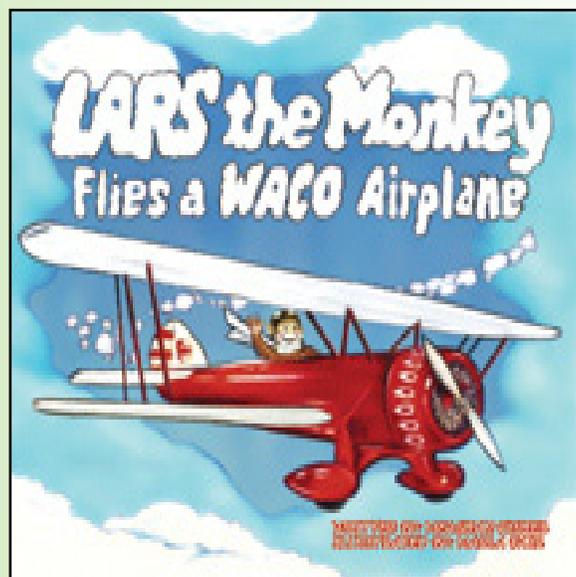

Sadie the skunk thinks she is a cat until a sibling kitten points out Sadie's differences from the rest of the family. Join her on her journey with Mr. Groundhog to find out what type of animal she is. Sadie the skunk thinks she is a cat until a sibling kitten points out Sadie's differences from the rest of the family. When Sadie asks her parents about it, they answer all her questions, telling her they found her as a baby alone in the forest and brought her home. However, they can't answer Sadie's most important question - what kind of an animal is she? To find this out, they take her to wise old Mr. Groundhog whose answer sends her on a series of misadventures. In the end, it is Sadie's most unique characteristic that helps her find her true home.

Lars the Monkey - $8.99

Author: Meaghan Fisher.

Lars wants to learn to fly a WACO airplane himself so he can share his love for flying with little passengers of his own. As Saturday approaches, the day that WACO pilots give rides, the pilot is missing. Can Lars fly the plane and save the day?

I Love Ladybugs!- $6.99

Author: Meaghan Fisher

Illustrator: Middy Mathieu

Ladybugs, ladybugs, all around. Follow along with toddler Emma Rose as she finds ladybugs in her garden, in her house, and on her toys... to her delight! Inspired by the author's real-life daughter.

Giuseppe's Famous Pizza Pies - $8.99

Author: Meaghan Fisher.

Giuseppe is a pizza chef in Rome, and customers come from far and wide to watch his antics and get a taste of his famous pies. But what will he do when his trusty vendor's cart breaks down? With help from a new friend, he might just find a solution!

Mousekabitz- $8.99

Author: Meaghan Fisher.

Mousekabitz has it made. He's got a safe place to live, a comfy bed, and plenty of food. That is, until he's discovered by the human family he lives with. Now even the lazy dog, Merlin, is after him! Chased from his home, Mousekabitz runs into an unfamiliar hole, but he doesn't know where to go next. And where is that music coming from?

God Gives Us Choices - $8.99

Author: Hope Rethman.

God Gives Us Choices captures a powerful moment between a young boy and his mother as they share a conversation sparked by a question asked by children everywhere: "Why does God let bad stuff happen?" As this endearing story unfolds, the boy and his mother discuss God's gift of free will and the impact our choices have on others. The boy ultimately learns that, although he is only eight years old, he can make a positive difference. His choices and actions can help to keep "bad stuff" from happening.

Coco and Pebbles: That's My Duck!
- $6.99

Author: Jeremy Wenning

Illustrator: Casey Barrett

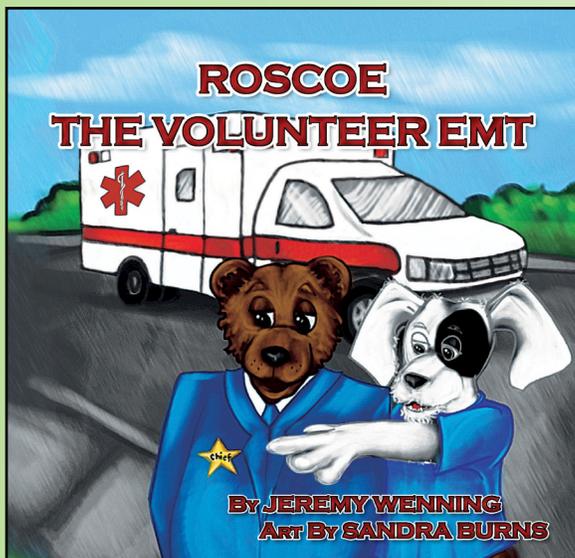

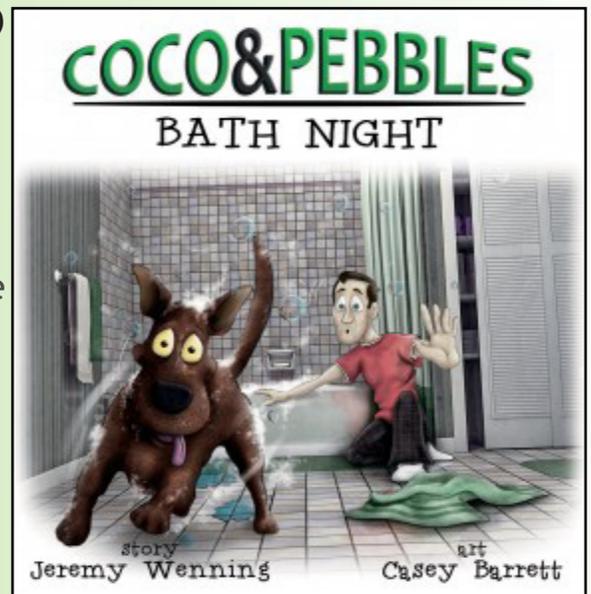

After Coco and Pebbles accidentally break a lamp, they have to go play outside. When Brianna throws Coco's favorite toy duck, the excitable dogs can't figure out how to share it. Can Brianna help them find a game they all can enjoy?

Coco and Pebbles: Bath Night - $6.99

Author: Jeremy Wenning

Illustrator: Casey Barrett

Coco and Pebbles need a bath, but bathing two rambunctious dogs is quite an adventure. They're making a mess! Brianna helps her dad clean the dogs while her mom comes up with a better plan for their next bath night.

Roscoe the Volunteer EMT - $8.99

Author: Jeremy Wenning

Illustrator: Sandra Burns

Roscoe impatiently waits to see if he passed his test to become an Emergency Medical Technician. Will he pass, and will his results be up to Chief Clever's standards? See what happens when his skills are put to the test for the first time.

The Whispering Sycamore- $8.99

Author: Mary Bingamon-Haller

Illustrator: Sandra Burns

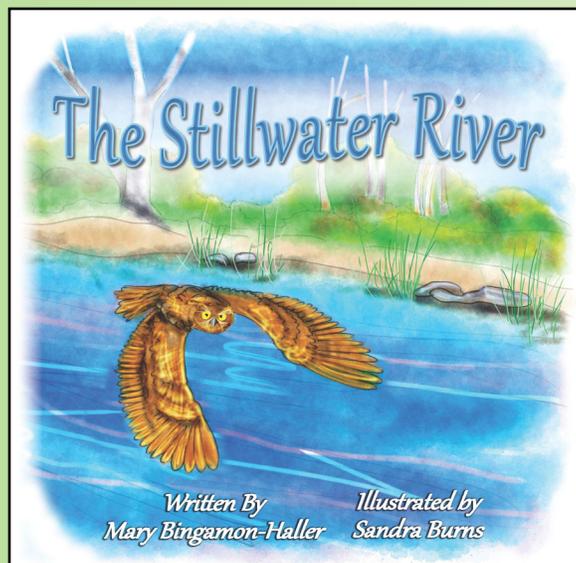

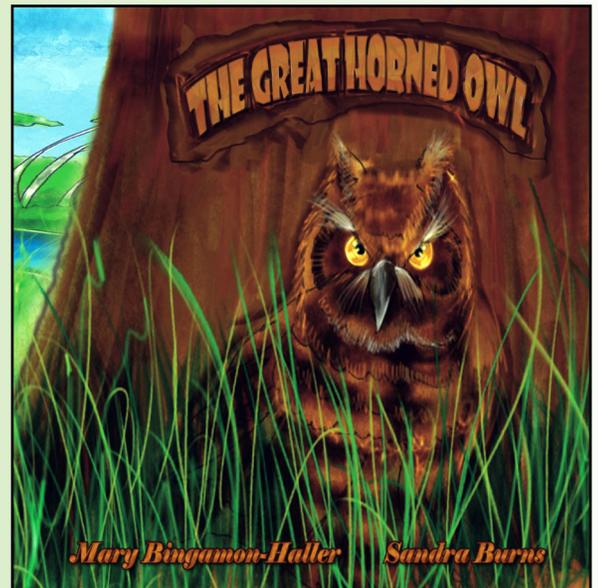

The banks of the Stillwater River have changed over the years, but one constant has been the tall, strong sycamore tree growing alongside the waters. Imagine all the things the sycamore has seen during her growth from a sprout to a mighty tree, and how the area has come to depend on her.

The Great Horned Owl- $8.99

Author: Mary Bingamon-Haller

Illustrator: Sandra Burns

It's the first day of spring when Mary decides to take a walk near her home, along the Stillwater River and spots a fallen baby great horned owl. Can she rescue the bird and get it back to its mama?

The Stillwater River- $8.99

Author: Mary Bingamon-Haller

Illustrator: Sandra Burns

Then with a swift move, the Great Horned Owl flew off the sycamore tree that he called home and into the night's cool autumn air. With a big goodbye to his dear friend and his wings spread wide, he flew over the beautiful Stillwater River and into the night.

Hank and Kale Visit the Aquarium- $8.99

Author: Dr. Gary Snowden

Illustrator: William E. Smith III

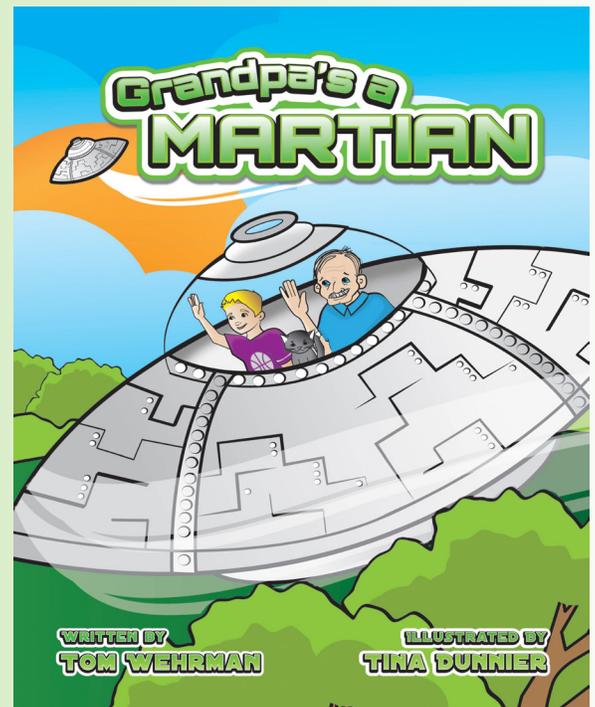

When Hank and Kale visit the aquarium they are splashed with water from head to toe by a beluga whale. They love every moment of this wonderful aquatic experience. But the thing that stands out most is the man with the dish. He seems to command the whale's every move. As they journey home their only thought is how soon they can return and visit the aquarium again.

Grandpa's a Martian- $8.99

Author: Tom Wehrman

Illustrator: Tina Dunnier

Nicholas is a seven-year-old boy who loves his Grandpa Albert, who is almost 90 and lives in a nursing home. Grandpa has a secret, but no one believes him except Nicholas. Can Nicholas convince his parents to help him use the secret to save his grandpa?

Tommy Fakes the Flu - $8.99

Author: Kristen Kerns

Illustrator: Casey Barrett

Tommy P. White will do anything to stay home from school. With his off-the-wall creativity, Tommy cleverly tries to trick his mother. Will he be able to fool her and have a day of fun and games? Or will he find that the flu is no fun?

What Would You Do if You Were Left at the Zoo?- $8.99

Author: Renee Hand;

Illustrator: Middy Mathieu

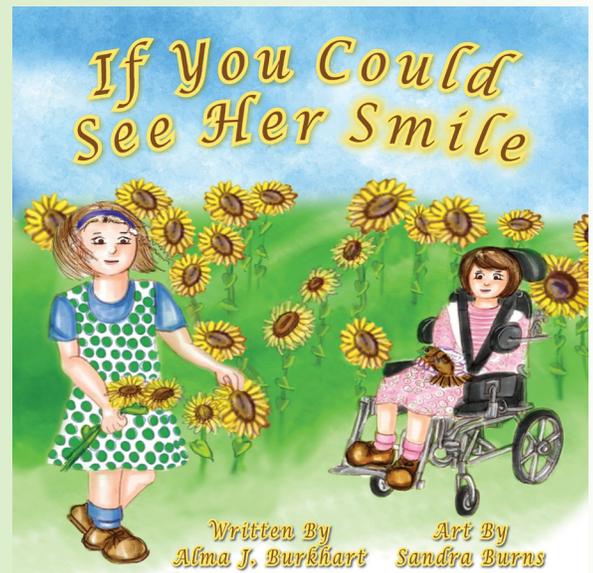

Sheldon is excited to visit the zoo with his mama and learn about all the great animals that live there. But when the zoo begins to fill with people and mama tells him to stay close so he won't get lost, Sheldon begins to wonder what it would be like to be left behind at the zoo and work there all day. As the pair explores, Sheldon tries to decide which animal he would study. Which one will he choose?

If You Could See Her Smile- $8.99

Author: Alma J. Burkhardt

Illustrator: Sandra Burns

Karen had a terrible day at school. She's tired of her classmates making fun of her sister Ruth just because she has cerebral palsy. Her mother helps Karen feel better about Ruth's condition, but she wants the other kids to understand, too. How can she get them to see Ruth the way she does? Karen realizes it's all up to her...and when she finds a robin in need of some special care, she may have found just the way to do it.

Little Witnesses- $8.99

Author: Alma J. Burkhardt

Illustrator: Sandra Burns

"Little Witnesses," are Endearing stories, full of understanding and faith. These refreshing fictional tales share religious experiences during a child's journey in life. However, not all experiences are easy. Jesus Christ is known for incredible doings, but teaching faith is a hefty task.

My Dog, Jack- $8.99

Author and Illustrator: Laura Ceville

Dad just brought home a puppy for his son. How exciting! Now they just have to decide what to call him. Follow along as the young boy gets to know his pet and tries to find just the right name for his new best friend.

The Gentle Elephant - $8.99

Author: Amy Kneisley;

Illustrator: Tina Dunnier

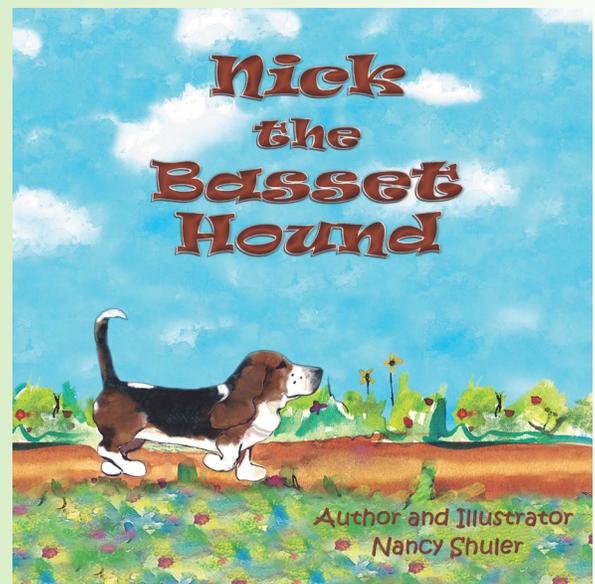

The Gentle Elephant portrays an unusual friendship between a prince and an elephant. They become immediate friends, when everyone else shuns the elephant from the prince's home. The prince and elephant lead an adventurous tale while also finding each other in a time of need. However, the King has final rule, and when he returns home to his castle he will decide the fate of their relationship.

Nick the Basset Hound - $8.99

Author and Illustrator: Nancy Shuler

Nick the beloved basset hound has great big paws and loves to tromp through the woods. He has a great big nose and loves to sniff. He has a great big tail he loves to wag in time to his trot. Consequently, Nick's rambunctious romps usually end in a dirty and smelly grand finale.

Leafy Finds a Home - $8.99

Author: Willa Alders

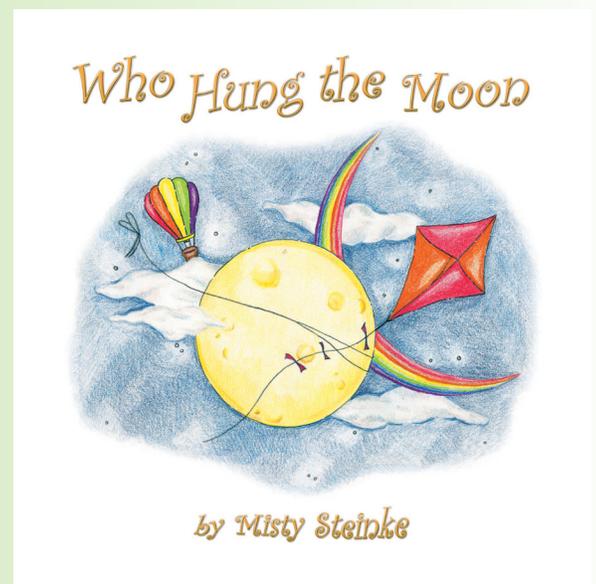

Illustrator: Sandra Burns

Leafy, the caterpillar, spends his days in the bug orphanage watching other bugs get adopted and find homes. Leafy feels left out because no one will adopt him. He believes it's the way he looks, because he doesn't look like other caterpillars. As Leafy starts to give up hope, a very special black widow enters into Leafy's world. She shows him that being unique is not a bad thing; it can be great! She offers Leafy something he can't turn down.

Who Hung the Moon - $6.99

Author and Illustrator: Misty Steinke

Take an adventure in your imagination, from coarse desert sands to the stars shining high above, as we ponder Who Hung the Moon in the sky.

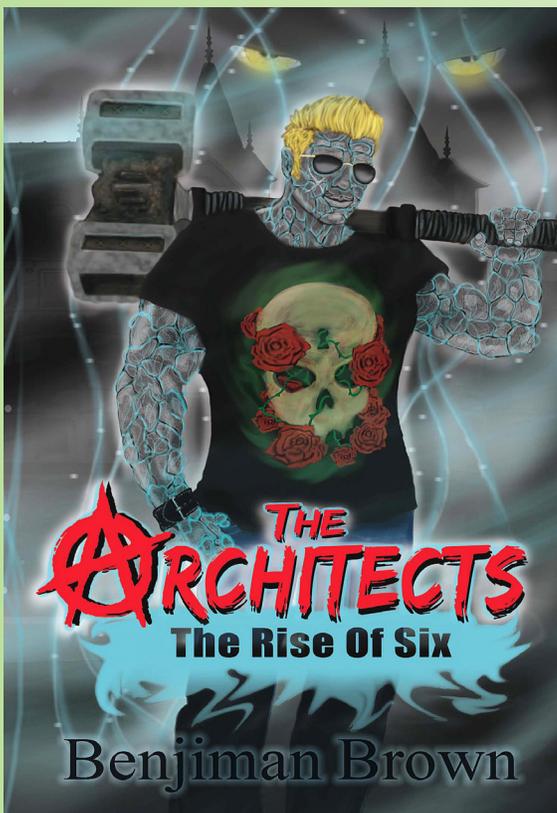

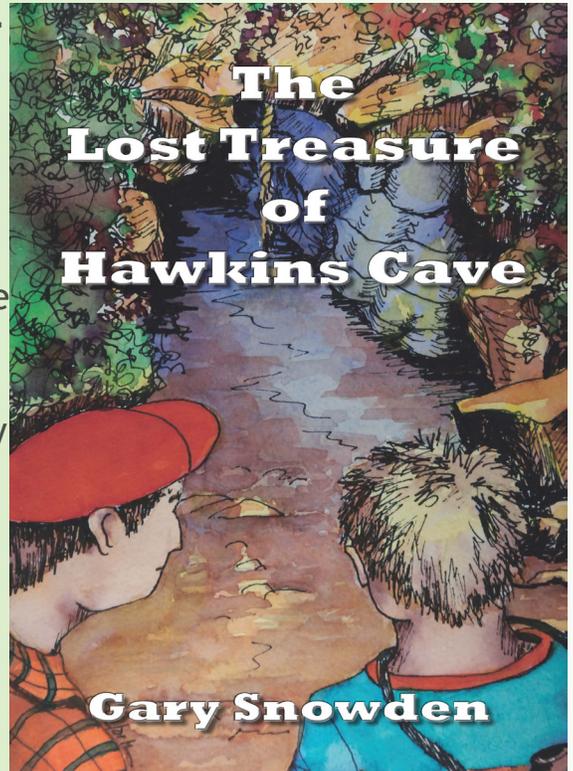

YOUNG ADULT

The Lost Treasure of Hawkins Cave- $7.99

Author Gary Snowden

Art by: Donna Pierce Clark

Bryson and his dad explore a mountain and cave as well as tracking down the facts behind a local mystery in his dad's hometown. Along the way Bryson learns how his dad grew up and how much he knows. He also realizes that his dad not only loves him, but trusts him with secrets and his life! Who would've thought that such a small thing like a hike and a picnic lunch would lead to so much excitement for the whole family? Where does the true treasure lie?

The Architects: The Rise of Six- $9.99

Author: Benjamin Brown

Cover Art: Tina Dunnier

A fantastic fantasy novel, which delves into an adventure of six extraordinary friends, all who possess unyielding powers, gifted to them from the elements of the Earth. A Dark Lord of the past is on a mission to demolish everything in his path, including the "Architects"... Can the World be saved by a group of heroes? At what point will they recognize this fight has much greater meaning than the peril at hand?